

Welcome

To the 129th Liang-I Newsletter. Summer and spring are just around the corner and we know this. We have this magic Crystal Ball that allows us to know that Christmas and New year is only 4 months away; Spring is just around the corner and Summer is just after that. Sun Tzu (and many other wise people) stated that the battle know is the battle half won!

Communicating with Success

YOU are all welcome to attend the KIiT Seminar this Saturday at 3pm in the Caulfield Kwoon (no longer in Zagami's).

It will be a fun Seminar learning and experimenting; what good communications are. We will examine what style of communications you prefer and which style is your weakest. KIiT Students are FREE, members $29, non members $49. Light refreshments afterwards!

72 Fists

From mid September until December Gradings we will be trialling the first level of 72 Fists. This will earn anyone who passes the 72 Fist Sash White Tip and set them up for sparring competitions!

This will be than graded in December and continues in January when we re-open!

1st Saturday Kick-on Fun

As usual, the first Saturday of each month do 'stuff' (Stuff is a Kung Fu technical term). This month we are going to Sidetracked; fast action, atmosphere, fun and adventure. With Go-karts, Laser Force, Highway 66 Tenpin Bowling, Mini Golf, Pool Tables, Amusements and Snacks

VALUE PASS

Go-Kart ride, Laser force Mission, Highway 66 Mini Tenpin Bowling, Mini-Golf, 5 x Game Tokens - $28.90

Grand Prix Value Pass (18yo +) - $39.90

FUN PACK

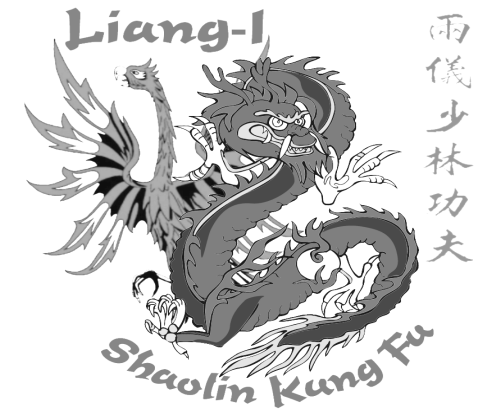

Laser force Mission, Highway 66 Mini, Tenpin Bowling, 5 x Game Tokens. - $16.90

Kung Fu Olympics

On Saturday 26 November 2005 Liang-I Shaolin Kung Fu will be staging, what we hope, will be the first Liang-I Shaolin Kung Fu Olympics. To start with there will be around 10 events testing students Strength, Agility, Endurance, Speed and cunning.

There is no Kung Fu class that day, due to Mordi Elections, so we invite all students to Caulfield at 12.00 noon for the Olympics and Special BBQ afterwards

Olympics for members only, BBQ at 3pm for members partners too.
